

ASPAC CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

-Participants in Alphabetical Order and Panel Number

-Panel Title

THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1995

5:00 PM: VANS LEAVE FOR THE JAPANESE GARDEN, PORTLAND. SIGN UP FOR THIS TOUR UPON ARRIVAL; SPACE IS LIMITED

8:30--09:00pm Leave Portland return to Forest Grove.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1995:

08:30--10:30am

Panel 1--Chinese International Relations:

Chair: Henry Schwartz, President, ASPAC

Hong Zhang, University of Arizona. "Nationalism and Politics of the Civil War: Chinese Intellectuals and Their Reactions to the United States' China Policies, 1945--1949"

Harold M. Otness, Southern Oregon State College. "The Invasion That Wasn't: Taiwan and the US Military in World War II"

Luke S. Colton, Senior Thesis, Pacific University. "The Future of Chinese Security:

Shelton Woods, Boise State, Idaho. "China's Future Role in Southeast Asia"

Panel 2--Japan: Post-War Socio-Economic Issues. (CHAIR NEEDED)

Prof. Thomas R. Cox, San Diego State University. "Coping with Kaso: Responses to Rural Out-migration in Postwar Japan"

Mark Metzler, University of California, Berkeley. "Japan's Confrontation with American Economics: Economic Theory and the Dodge Line, 1949--1952"

Prof. Nobuko Pugarelli, University of Hawaii, Honolulu Community College.
"Oe Kenzaburo and the Fifty-Year Postwar Period" Yasumasa Kuroda, University of Hawaii, Manoa. "Political Transformation in Japan, 1945-1955."

Panel 3--India's Options in the Emerging World Order: A Roundtable Discussion

Chair: Professor Ram Roy, California State University, Northridge.
General K. Bhimaya, The Rand Corp.
Professor Parks Riley , the University of California, Riverside

10:35--11:55am

Panel 4-- American Veterans and the Return to Vietnam

Jack Estes, Writer, Chair.
Steve Knox, Lewis & Clark College, Discussant
Additional local veterans returned from Vietnam

Panel 5--Teaching In and About Asia

Chair: Bob Wilner, Oregon International Council
Reta Gilbert, Eastern Washington University, Cheney and Spokane. "Using Authentic Southeast Asian Resources for Teaching"
Wayne Lammers. Editor, Manga. "Manga as a Language Teaching Tool"
Yoshiko Kayano, Linfield College. "What We Can Teach Through Literature:
The Case Study of a Modern Japanese Literature Course" Shiho Aoki, Senior Thesis, Pacific University. "The Historical Metamorphosis of Japanese Education."

1:00-2:50pm

Panel 6--Teaching Japanese Language

Chair: Lina Lu, Pacific University
Nariyo Kono, Portland State University. "American Students' Expectations of Teachers in the Japanese Language Classroom" Asst.-Prof. Hiroshi Matsumoto, Oregon State University. "Empirical Studies on Teachers' Language--Implications to Intermediate Japanese Classes in American Universities"

Asst.-Prof. Yasuko Makita, University of Guam. "The Effectiveness of Dramatic/ Role-Playing Activities in the Japanese Language Classroom"

Panel 7--Japanese International Relations

Chair: Yasumasa Kuroda, University of Hawaii, Manoa.

Greg Gubler, Brigham Young University, Hawaii. "The Hopes of the Japanese Empire: The View from Moscow, May--August 1945"

Asst.-Prof. M.J. Rhee, Portland State University. "Enlightenment and Alienation: Origins of Japanese Colonialism in Korea"

Mark A. Riddle, Utah Translation Group. "Japan's Opium War"

Shanti Breznau, Reed College Senior Thesis, "Korean Comfort Women."

3:10-5:05pm

Panel 9--Chinese International Relations: "Integrating China into the Asian Pacific Region: Dilemmas and Opportunities":

Frances F. Lai, Dominican College of San Rafael. (Chair) "Structural Weakness of China's Post Cold- War Diplomacy"

Joseph Cheng, City University of Hong Kong. "Sino-British Negotiation: Impacts on the Democratization of Hong Kong"

Prof. Ng Lun Ngai-Ha, Chinese University of Hong Kong. "Problems in the Development of Higher Education in Post-War Hong Kong, Forces Within and Without"

Panel 29--Japanese Language Acquisition

Carl Falsgraf, Oregon State System of Higher Education. (Chair) "Native and Non-Native Discourse in the Japanese Classroom"

Atsuko Hayashi, University of Oregon. "American Learners' Use of Japanese Wa.."

Suwako Watanabe, Portland State University. "Analyzing Feedback in Japanese Language Classrooms"

6:00-8:00pm Oak Knoll Winery Tour, Hillsboro

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1995:

08:30--10:20am

Panel 11--Japanese International Relations: "Japan's Perceptions Gaps with the US and Asia: Unsettled Issues Fifty Years After the Pacific War":

Asst.-Prof. Mayumi Itoh, University of Nevada, Las Vegas. (Chair)
"Perception Gaps Between Japan and Southeast Asia: Japan's War Reparations Toward ASEAN"

Discussant: Stephen Roddy, Center for the Pacific Rim, University of San Francisco.

Asst.-Prof. Ericka Engstrom, University of Nevada, Las Vegas. "Retto-Kan and Its Manifestations in the Japanese Culture: From Meiji to Present"

Yoichiro Sato, University of Hawaii, Manoa. "What Media Do to Our Mutual Understanding: Mechanism of Skewed Information Flow Between Japan and the US"

Stephen Roddy, AFFILIATION? (Discussant)

Panel 12--Economic Issues in East Asia:

Chair: Phil Ruder, Pacific University

Paul A. Van Dyke, University of Southern California. "Intellectual Property Rights: Friend or Foe? The Example of the Asian NICs"

Ngoc (Angie) B. Tran, AFFILIATION "The VN Textile and Garment Industry in the Global Economy"

Christopher A. McNally, University of Washinton. "Local Growth Alliances in the Initial Stages of Capital Accumulation--A Comparative Analytical Interpretation of China's Local Political Economy"

Prof. Dean Collinwood, U.S. Japan Center of Utah, Weber State University.
"The New US-Japan Industry and Technology Management Training Program"

Rita Laxton, Pacific University. "Teaching Business to Japanese Students in America"

Panel 13--HANDS-ON DEMONSTRATION: The Teaching of Asian Studies:
"Electronic Resources"

Jim Hearne Western Washington State University. "Using The Internet and the World Wide Web in Asian Studies"

Jeb Wiseman, Pacific University

Frank Conlon? The University of Washington.

Panel 8--Asian Politics: "Nation-Building in Asia--The State and Civil Society":

Chair: Prof. Lela G. Noble, San Jose State University. "Nation-Building in Central Asia: A Philippine Perspective"

G. Sidney Silliman, California State Polytechnic, Pomona. "Citizen Movements and Democracy in the Philippines"

James Nafziger, Willamette University. "Building Kazakhstan Through Citizenship Laws and Treaties"

Stewart Johnson, California State University. "The Ramos Revolution: New Directions in Philippine Foreign Policy"

10:35--11:55am

Panel 14 Ethnic Minorities of The Russian Far East

Donna Turkish Seifer, MA Instructor in Russian Studies, Lewis & Clark College, Chair. "Efforts at Preserving Cultural Traditions Among the People of Siberia and the Russian Far East: With a Slide Presentation"

Barry Peril, Photographer.

Anna Shkuropat, University of Washington. Ethnic Minorities of the Russian Far East), "Russia Toward Pacific Regional Economic Intergration: Pymorsky Perspective"

Panel 15--MacDonald of Oregon and the Opening of Japan.

Chair: Paul Engelsberg, Pacific University

Stephen W. Kohl, University of Oregon. "MacDonald in Japan Before Perry"

Film: "The First American Teacher in Japan."

Katie Kohl, Crescent Valley high School. "MacDonald in the K-12

Classroom: Thematic Approaches and Resources."

Keiko Abe, Kyoritsu Women's University, Tokyo. "The Process of Adaptation: Main Factors Which Affect Americans in Japan Adjusting to Japanese Culture"

Mas Tomita, Epson Corp., Portland. "MacDonald in Japan and America Today."

Panel 16--Women, Politics, and Culture in China and Japan

Ron Loftus, Chair. Willamette University. "Memoirs of a Female Marxist: The Autobiography of Fukunaga Misao"

Susan Lea Stairs, University of Oregon. "IRO: The Politics of Desire in the Tale of Genji"

Colleen O'Dell Miss Froehle, Observers to the U.N. Beijing Conference on Women, "The Chinese Conference and Forum on Women"

LUNCH

01:00--02:50pm

Panel 17--"Controlling Crime and Delinquency in East Asia: Lessons for America?": A Round Table Discussion.

Robert Y. Thornton, Senior Judge, State of Oregon. (Chair) "Preventing Crime in America and Japan: A Comparative Study"

Ming Kang Gu, Willamette University, College of Law.

Sergeant Eiichi Takai National Police Agency, Japan, Toyoma Prefecture.

Ronald Louie, Chief of Police, Hillsboro.

Officer Jimmie Lee, Portland Police Bureau

James Nafziger, Willamette University, College of Law.

Panel 18--Tien Rong: A Study of the Oregon Vietnamese Community.

Chair, Christine Richardson, Lincoln High School, Portland, Oregon. "The Oral History of the Oregon Vietnamese Community"

Barry Peril, Photographer, A Photographic Inventory of the Oregon Vietnamese Community, a Work in Progress. Selected Slides.

Jeffrey Barlow, Pacific University. "Religion as a Variable in Assimilation in the Oregon Vietnamese Community"

Panel 19--Chinese Education:

Prof. Patricia Neils, Chair, State of Hawaii, Department of Education.

"Interactive Strategies for Teaching About China in Secondary Schools"

Prof. Paul M. Englesberg, Pacific University. "China's Study Abroad Policy, 1978-1993: Sending, Return, and Non- Return of Students and Scholars"

Mr. Leslie H. Chen, AFFILIATION? "Educational Reform in Guangdong, 1920- 1923"

Glen Peterson, University of British Columbia. "The Impact of the Korean War on Literary Education 1953"

Panel 20--Japan and World War II:

Chair: E. Bruce Reynolds, San Jose State University.

Lennox Tierney, University of Utah. "Reminiscences of the Occupation of Japan-- Fifty Years After the Great Cultural Integration"

Jack Pierce, Whatcom Community College. "Recollections About Japanese Prisoners"

Millie Creighton, University of British Columbia, "Fifty Years of Wounds Not Yet Healed: World War II Imprisonment Camps on Both Sides of the Pacific"

03:05--05:05 pm

Panel 21--Southeast and Northeast Asia.

Chair: Roger Paget, Lewis & Clark College

Prof. Dong Sull Choi, Brigham Young University. "How Did Thailand Survive All the Invasions of Foreign Powers?"

Sun-Hyuk Kim, Stanford University. "Democratic Consolidation and Civil Society in South Korea"

Prof. Tsuneo Akaha, Monterey Institute of International Studies.

"International Relations of Northeast Asia: Imperatives of Regional Economic Cooperation Against Pre-War and Cold War Legacies"

Panel 22--China: Identity and Poetry.

Chair: Stuart Sargent, University of Maryland, College Park. "The 'I' in 'Delightful!': Ho Chu and the Pavilion Su Shih Foregot."

James P. Leibold, University of Southern California. "Problematizing Minzu: Rethinking and Expanding Our Conceptualization of Ethnicity in Modern China"

Mithran Tiruchelvam, Senior Thesis, Reed College. "'Fixing the Other': Positionality and Social-Cultural Identity Construction in Late Imperial China"

Susan Cherniack, University of Colorado, Boulder. "Poets and Printers in the Southern Song: A Case Study of Chen Qi's Collections."

Kathleen Tomlonovic, Western Washington University. "Words of the Master: Responses to Predecessors in Song Dynasty Poetry and Chang Buddhist 'Yulu.'" "Predecessors in Song Dynasty Poetry and Chang Buddhist 'Yulu'"

Jennifer Jay, University of Alberta. "A Perspective on Sinicization: Eunuchs in Non-Chinese Conquest Dynasties."

Panel 23--From Post-Nuclear to Post-Modern: "Paradigms and Politics in Post-1945 Japan."

Chair: Alan Wolfe, University of Oregon. Gregory McLauchlan, University of Oregon. "Japanese Nuclear Politics Past and Present."

Matthew Brookhart, University of Oregon. "Has Japan's Nuclear Policy Gone Post-Pacifist?"

Peter Tillack, University of Oregon. "Japanese Mass Culture."

Junji Yoshida, University of Oregon. "Victims or Victimizer?: Reading Atomic Bomb Literature in the Perspective of the Pacific War."

Panel 24--Japan and World War II: "Japan in the International Community: Rethinking Pre-War Misconceptions".

Prof. Jeffrey E. Hanes, AFFIL? (Chair).

Mark E. Caprio, University of Washington. "Total War and Japan's Interwar Reforms in Colonial Korea"

Brett L. Walker, University of Oregon. "Civilizing the 'Meaou': Tokugawa Culture and the Incorporation of Ezo"

John Van Sant, University of Oregon. "Early Japan-Hawaii Relations: Eugene Van Reed and the Ganner-Mono"

John Sagers, University of Washington "Politics and the 1927 Japanese Banking Crisis."

6:00-7:30pm

Dinner Banquet; Keynote Speech to be given by the President of the American Association of Asian Studies (AAS), Barbara Metcalf, India Specialist.Ca.

7:45-11:00pm

8:00pm Leave Forest Grove to go to downtown Portland, visit the Waterfront--Japanese Memorial, Chinatown, and Powell's Bookstore. Powell's Bookstore will provide a shuttle bus.

SUNDAY, JUNE 18, 1995:

08:30--10:20am

Panel 25--Japanese and American Concepts of Friendship: A Round-table Report on an Ongoing Study.

Nariyo Kono, Portland State University. Chair. "A Comparison of the Japanese and American Concepts of Friendship"

Eriko Maeda, Portland State University.

Jay Peterson, Portland State University.

Panel 26--Communication in Asian Culture CHAIR NEEDED

Estelle Lau, University of the Pacific. "Value Differences as Communicated Indirectly in Cambodian-American Interactions"

Prof. Dong Sull Choi, Brigham Young University. "Significance of Animals' Contribution to Southeast Asian Societies"

Asst.-Prof. Joseph P. McCallus, Columbus College. "Intercultural Professional Writing in the Philippines: Problems of Identity and Process"

James Hoyt, Hawaii community College. "Korean Literature and Nationalism"

Panel 10--Asian Female Migrants in North America:

Chair: Jane Leung Larson, Northwest China Council

Prof. Linda Tamura, Willamette University. "Historical Perspectives of Japanese Women in the US, 1920 to Present" ???

Prof. Kazuko Ikeda, Pacific University. "Historical Perspectives of Japanese Women in the US, 1920 to Present" ???

Prof. Sunny Kim, University of Alberta. "The Status of Korean Women in Canadian Society."

10:35--11:55am

Panel 28 Religion in Asia.

Chair: Margaret Chou, Pacific University.

Richard P. Klecan, Miyagi College For Women, Sendai. "Early Christianity in the Ryu Kyu Islands"

Laurence G. Thompson, University of Southern California, Emeritus. "Observations on Religion and Orthodoxy in Early Ch'ing Taiwan"

Melissa Brookes, Senior Thesis, Pacific University. "The Demise of the Sixteenth Century Jesuit Mission in Japan"

1:00pm Van Shuttle to Airport